AQUARIAN PRODUCTS UPDATE – PURCHASE, SUPPORT & WARRANTY

For over 17 years, more than 4000 system owners world-wide have trusted Fossil Power Systems' (Fossil) Aquarian products for accurate water detection. During the earlier years, Aquarian products were marketed and distributed exclusively by Yarway™ Corp. for Fossil.

The Aquarian product line and spare parts are now being sold and supported directly by the manufacturer and designer, Fossil Power Systems.

At Fossil, we remain committed to the Aquarian product innovation and seamless service that has made us a global leader. Our Aquarian products and support continue to set the industry standard for accurate and reliable water detection, service and value.

PURCHASE OPTIONS

You can now purchase Aquarian systems and spare parts through our global network of sales distributors we have set up to replace Yarway™ or directly from the factory. Fossil invites you to visit www.fossil.ca for online information, or call 1-902-468-4701(ext 720) for the nearest dealer.
